

How Does Glenbrook Primary School promote fundamental British values?

DfE Guidance November 2014:

‘All schools have a duty to ‘actively promote’ the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.’ ‘All schools must now have a clear strategy for embedding these values and show how their work with pupils has been effective in doing so.’ ‘Changes were designed to “tighten up the standards on pupil welfare to improve safeguarding, and the standards on spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils to strengthen the barriers to extremism”.’

At Glenbrook Primary School we promote fundamental British values in the following ways:

Democracy	The Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs	Equality for all
Promotion of our school council and pupil voice. Responding to questionnaires and shaping school decisions. Involvement in citizenship projects such as The great project/ Bilborough children’s society study. Participation in a mock election. Assembly/class visits from members of the community – councillor/school governor. School team points/ system.	Rules and sanctions across school. Code of conduct. RE/PHSCE curriculum. Participation in community projects such as Street Crime/ Anti Social Behaviour. Consistent application of the school behaviour policy. Class and school awards/ achievement assemblies. School rules/class rules.	Staying safe initiatives over the year – internet safety/road safety/ anti bullying week. Gender free resources and encouraging non gender specific play. Challenging stereotypes within our curriculum. Disability awareness. Curriculum initiatives; remembrance day/ migration project.	Celebration of different religions and festivals – learning about belief and practice of different faith groups in RE lessons/ different cultures and ways of living. Assemblies SEAL programme Accommodation of different religious choices Visitors to school – cultural visits/ language buddies.	Promotion of pupil voice SEAL programme Participation in sporting activities promoting equality, fairness and inclusion. Buddy schemes across school. Awards and achievements/presentations. Inclusive environment.

		Pupils have key responsibilities in school – play leaders, buddies.	Community projects such as the creation of the Bilborough food bank. Strong links with local schools and participation in various pupil networks.
SEAL – Social and Emotional Aspects of learning. RE – Religious Education				